Growing a Greener, Cleaner New Market went well considering. It was damp and cold, which didn't make for a fantastic day in the park; however we did have some participants.

A new Dogwood tree is in the park that several folks helped to plant. We will get plaque to display with their names.

Movie Nights in the Park

Join us in the New Market
Community Park to enjoy a movie under the stars!

Thank you for visiting New Market and participating in SVBF's Commemorating the Battle of New Market-157th Anniversary Programs.

Worked with the merchants this past week
To create a flyer for downtown incentives
For the folks participating with the SVBF's programs

Other Projects:

- *Continue with the Small Business Grant Review Committee
- *Helping with the Yard Crawl Committee on hospitality vision
- *Starting to plan RevUP seminar again with other towns and the county, along with Shenandoah Community Creative Fund (formerly known as Staunton Community Creative Fund.)
- *Lots of branding projects in the works, with a good conversation with Sproutly about photography/video for marketing purposes.
- *Working on some new smaller quality of life events for some downtown fun.
